Audra Chapman guest of honor at kitchen, linen shower Aug. 2

Audra Chapman, bride-elect of Justin Armour, was guest of honor at an outdoor kitchen and linen shower Sunday afternoon, August 2, at the home of Carol Souther on the Thomson Road.

Hostesses for the occasion with Mrs. Souther were Peggy Jones, Jennifer Holton, Kim White, Julia Ann Holloway and Lynn Connell. Co-hostesses were Leslie Souther, Emily Connell, Ashlyn and Alyssa Holley, and Shelby White.

For the shower Miss Chapman wore a sundress in Royal blue, black and white stripes. She was presented a corsage of a white daisy with a black center finished with blue ribbon in keeping with the color scheme of the party.

The blue and white color scheme was carried out with blue and white checked cloths. Bouquets of white daisies decorated these tables placed under the pavilion around the pool.

Guests enjoyed churns of delicious homemade sherbet and chocolate ice cream with Hershey's Kisses-topped peanut butter cookies and brownies.

Guests who included many of the bride-elect's teachers and 4-H friends signed her scrapbook as they arrived.

The hostesses presented Miss Chapman a red casserole dish and matching rooster dish towel.

Miss Chapman presented them thank you gifts of monogrammed serving plates filled with cheese straws and sandies.

Thirty-five guests were invited. Special guests included the bride-elect's mother, Stephanie Chapman of Washington, and grandmother, Audrey Goldman of Lincolnton; and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Denise Armour of Rayle.

Frances Wheelis WOM members enjoy salad supper at Nelms home

Hummingbird Hill, home of Richard and Kay Nelms in Logan Wood, was the scene of the salad supper and meeting of the Frances Wheelis Women on Mission of the First Baptist Church Monday evening, August 3.

Mrs. Nelms welcomed members who brought delicious salads and desserts for the meal. Susan Pope offered the blessing.

After the meal everyone gathered in the den for the meeting.

Melanie Wells presided and opened the meeting with members reading the WMU Watchword. During the business meeting, reports were given by Gail Hunter and Louise McClearen.

Kay Nelms gave the mission report and members voted to make donations to Shaped by God, Rick's Institute in Liberia, the Walhalla Foundation that provides a ministry in Romania, Georgia Baptist Children's Home and Christmas in August.

Mrs. Nelms led the installation of officers for the coming year and installed Cheryl Edwards, facilitator; Melanie Wells, vice-facilitator; Rosemary Hopkins, secretary; Gail Hunter, treasurer; Priscilla Moore, mission study; Teresa Bishop, mission support; Kay Nelms, mission action; Julia Palmer, social chairman; and Pat Grimaud, card chairman. Mrs. Nelms used seashells in her installation, continuing the seashell theme she had used on tables for the meal.

Teresa Bishop offered the mission support portion of the meeting with focus on the missionary Paul and work in West Africa. After missionaries were named and those with special needs in the community given, she closed in prayer.

Present with Mrs. Nelms were Melanie Wells, Pat Grimaud, Cheryl Edwards, Louise McClearen, Gail Hunter, Susan Pope, Jackie Gillispie, Priscilla Moore, Rosemary Hopkins, Shelby Caddell, Julia Palmer, Elizabeth Pope, Nancy Madden and Teresa Bishop.

Rebecca Blackmon Hooton weds Evan Jerome Stover Jr. on July 25

Rebecca Blackmon Hooton and Evan Jerome Stover Jr. of Washington exchanged wedding vows in an impressive double-ring ceremony in the Chapel of the First United Methodist Church in Washington Saturday, July 25, at eleven-thirty o'clock in the morning. Rev. Gale Seibert of Washington officiated the ceremony in the presence of the couple's immediate families.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James H. Blackmon Jr. of Washington.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jerome Stover of Clarksville.

The altar held two floral arrangements of calla lilies, green roses and hydrangeas and ferns and was decorated by Kermit Hocutt and Mrs. Tom Wells of Washington.

Mrs. Bob Guin of Washington presented the wedding music and played "Majesty" for the couple's processional. Soloist, Darren Pharr of Washington, sang "Surely the Presence of the Lord".

Ella Gaither of Canton, granddaughter of the bridegroom, served as the flower girl.

The bride's attire was finished with her bouquet of calla lilies. She also had a sixpence from London, a gift of the bridegroom's daughter, Anna Stover.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stover entertained their wedding guests at a luncheon at their home on Greens Circle in Washington.

Tables for the luncheon were set with beige cloths, black crystal, black starters and beige dinner plates. Round glass bowls of magnolia leaves atop mirrors centered the tables.

Serving were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wells, Kermit Hocutt and the bride's aunt, Mrs. Robert Wallace, all of Washington.

Following a wedding trip to Highlands, N.C., Mr. and Mrs. Stover are making their home on Greens Circle in Washington.
