Beulah Baptist Church

THE WINDOW

We generally feel that a window provides a view from the inside looking out, although of course the reverse is also true. Few would consider living in or building a home without windows, so as to completely shut off the outside world.

Sometimes, however, we may close our minds and hearts to God and try to live completely within ourselves. Always leave a window open to receive the light of His Spirit, for the alternative is a darkness that breeds distrust and self-doubt.
